Dear Dave,

Enclosed is a copy of two pages of the 5/3 Publishers Weekly.

From what it says about Livingstone's forgetting about throwing stones from glass houses it is clear, I think, that his only interest in the Badgeman print was to use against Gary, to whom a copy.

I think that Gary should give this to his lawyer. If what they say about the book and what Harry wrote can be taken as an indication, if anyone sues I think that the key questions will be of malice and I think that can be proven.

I'll appreciate any thing more you can get on the books and anything on Harry's most recent invasion of Texas.

Best,

Harold
